

Newcastle.

The Dominican Nuns are very pleased with the progress of their new school at Mayfield, 90 children attending their day school. They are now prepared to receive boarders, and as the convent and school is situated in an excellent position, commanding as it does a view of the whole of Newcastle, and being in a particularly healthy position, the success of the school and college is assured.

The Very Rev. Father O'Garra, P.P.